Year for Priests

Most Reverend Pietro Sambì
Apostolic Nuncio
3339 Massachusetts Ave NW
Washington, DC 20008-3610

Your Excellency,

May the Lord give you peace!

Enclosed are letters addressed to Our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI and His Eminence James Cardinal Stafford (formerly of the Sacred Penitentiary). These letters, your Excellency, have been written by Richard Boldin of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee who is the director of our very active Rosary Evangelization Apostolate.

The Rosary Apostolate is promoting an initiative begun by our former Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan, now Archbishop of the See in New York. I am happy to report to your Excellency that I heartily endorse and support his initiative and commend it to your prayers for the Faithful of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Cover letters of introduction are also included for His Holiness and Cardinal Stafford.

Thank you, your Excellency, for your attention in this matter. Please be assured of my personal affection and respect for Our Holy Father and for you, his representative in the United States.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Respectfully and fraternally yours in Christ,

Most Reverend William Patrick Callahan
Archdiocesan Administrator
Archdiocese of Milwaukee
